

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, July 8, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Musgrove must fill 2 Ed Board vacancies

Ebbers before Congress today

George County DA: Too many cases dropped

Tort reform could harm some victims

Anti-cockfighting laws must be toughened in Mississippi

Medicaid cuts challenge acutely ill

WorldCom customers make backup plans

GOP, Democrats prepare to tackle corporate reform

Editorials

Giving \$68M to Nissan is illogical

Looking at Nissan, Hyundai may have done us 'big favor'

No salary jobs at Nissan for Miss.

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Ex-WorldCom execs may refuse to testify

Many African-Americans view GOP as enemy

Sound Off

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Prison education programs touted

Mississippi steps up to plate for shot at WorldCom

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

- Musgrove and state prisons — Cassreino

•

• Another example why Mississippi needs tort reform

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth

State high court to hear another appeal in Winona murder case

Muzzles taken off judicial candidates

Prison dealings frustrate Huggins

Mississippi Business Journal

Today's News

Magnolia Report

Moore's 2003 decision might surprise everyone

Rep Greg Snowden: Supreme Court ruling should impact state's judicial races

Sid Salter: Waller v Trial Lawyers to stay on high court

Ronnie Musgrove: Mississippi and America the proudest homes we could have

Donald Adderton: Delta businesses cry for tort reform

Natchez doctors say legal clouds still looming

The New York Times

Former WorldCom Executives to Refuse to Testify Before Congress

The Washington Post

The Washington Times